THE INNOCENCE OF ROAST
CHICKEN

JO-ANNE RICHARDS

The Innocence of Roast Chicken is a highly acclaimed post-apartheid novel with a strong sense of place and an atmosphere of light and beauty shot through with an acute awareness of impending tragedy.

JO-ANNE RICHARDS is a South African novelist and journalist whose work has been published internationally. She teaches creative writing through Allaboutwriting. The Innocence of Roast Chicken is her first novel, originally published in 1996. It was a South African bestseller and was nominated for the International IMPAC Dublin Literary Award, shortlisted for the M-Net Book Prize and chosen as the 1997 Dillan's Debut Novel in London. Jo-Anne's other novels include Touching the Lighthouse (1997), Sad at the Edges (2003), My Brother's Book (2008) and The Imagined Child (2013).
